

Daily Bible Reading Plan

This Bible reading plan allows you to read the entire Bible in one year while only reading five times a week. Many people have successfully reached their goal of regular Bible reading using this schedule. Further, reading the Old Testament in chronological order (even the Psalms have been placed chronologically when possible) aids understanding of the Bible story, and helps the reader to look forward to reading God's Word. The New Testament readings space the Gospels out throughout the year to keep the reader constantly coming back to the life and teachings of Jesus. Always do the reading in the order it appears on the schedule. God's blessings rests with those who will read and live by His Word. "Your word is a lamp to my feet, and a light to my path" Ps. 119:105.

Our Mission Statement

We are a community of praying Christians called by God to worship Him; intentionally share Jesus' story with others; baptize those who accept Christ, enfolding them into the family of God; and joyfully disciple Christians to think Biblically about life.

Physical Distancing Policy

We are happy that we can meet together today! As we look forward to worshipping with you, we want to communicate a few things to you.

- 1) If you feel the need to stay home, we will continue to live-stream our services, so you will still be able to watch. And, as always, call us if you need help with anything.
- 2) Wear masks into and out of the building. Continue to maintain 6ft of social distancing when in the building.
- 3) Feel free to sit in any row now that we have spread them out over 6 feet apart.
- 4) Fussy children in the worship service do not bother us at all. Do not feel like you have to take your kids out. They are a part of the family, and we love having them in the worship service.
- 5) After the service is over, feel free to linger and talk to others. Stay as long as you would like. Just wear your mask and maintain social distancing.
- 6) If you would like to tithe, we will have the baskets set up in the lobby. They will be on either side of the table where the greeters usually stand to pass out bulletins.

Thank you! Your Elders & Pastors

Thought for the Week

At the Last Supper this notion of Jesus' flesh and blood becoming, not just, like manna, sustenance now, the food of Time, but everlasting sustenance, food for Eternity – this mysterious notion was made actual. The twelve, Judas included, ate him and drank him, in a celebration which was to provide the early church with its basic act of worship; already being practiced in the time of the Apostle Paul, and continuing in one form or another to the present day, so that through the past twenty centuries there has certainly never been a week, maybe never a day, when someone somewhere was not dispensing the body and blood of Jesus, or at any rate recalling that Last Supper in Jerusalem and Jesus' words at it by munching a morsel of bread and swallowing a sip of wine. So many variations in procedure, but always the same essential theme of a man offering his physical existence, his flesh and blood in order that other men might know and experience a spiritual existence which was everlasting.

Malcolm Muggeridge

January Bible Memory Verse

So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them.

Genesis 1:27

Confession of Our Christian Faith

Leader: Christian, how did Jesus teach us to pray?

Congregation: Jesus said, "Pray like this:

'Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For yours is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.'"

Leader: Christian, in this age of anger, confusion, and darkness, what do you believe?

Congregation: I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and buried: he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sits on the right hand of God the Father Almighty, from there he shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Upcoming Events/ Announcements:

Officer Nominations are beginning. We're starting the process of nominating and training new Elders and Deacons this year. But before you nominate someone, read through 1 Timothy 3:1-7 for Elders and 1 Timothy 3:8-13 for Deacons and spend some time in prayer asking God to guide you in your thinking. If the Lord encourages you to nominate someone, then submit their name to one of the current Elders - Barrett, Eric, Kurt, Jim, Harry, or Steve. Thanks!

Winter Bible Studies for Women

Please join us for one or both of our Winter Bible Studies!

1) Author Julie Sparkman is offering a free, live simulcast on YouTube every Thursday morning (for 6 sessions) starting Jan. 21st at 10 am EST. You can join from your own home or meet together in small groups.

You know the "dark winter" predictions as well as I do. How do you cope with those negative forecasts? I keep my finger poised to the "off" button on my radio and hit it whenever the newscast predicts worsening conditions. I've attended two (social distanced!) small gatherings of friends just recently and, as the conversation veered into the sad state of our world, I interjected with "only happy talk please!" My fear comes in the form of denial, how about yours?

I often suppress and push on with life, falsely believing that I can outrun my own heart. It never works. What if, instead of running from what is in my heart, I began to acknowledge it and listen to what it's telling me - what needs to be tended to, offered to God for alignment or healing? If that question intrigues you, then I have some good news to share. Beginning January 21st, the first of six livestreams of my NEW teaching series, Life from the Inside Out - Why Your Heart Matters More Than What You Do, will be offered FREE. Each 30-minute lesson includes questions for you to go deeper individually but I so encourage you to pull together some friends to process with! The winter months need not be dark and lonely. We may not yet know HOW engaging the Lord in community will look, but we know that this the ONLY way to prepare ourselves for whatever direction our lives may take.

*To Register, go here: <https://mailchi.mp/872423656090/inside-out>
For questions, please call or text Ginny Yates at 205-222-4787.*

2) Our Second study will meet in person at our church for 10 weeks on Sunday Evenings from 6-7:30 pm, starting Jan. 24. This study, entitled "Living Hope in a Hard World" is on I & II Peter and is written by Lydia Brownback. If interested, please sign up in the foyer or text Ginny Yates: 205-222-4787. Cost is $16
